Additional info:

Employees need to be flexible and realize that hours will fluctuate from week to week. Students should contact host company after they have arrived in Wisconsin Dells and secured their housing to confirm their orientation day. Host company will be conducting telephone interviews with students before they are confirmed for this job. This is to check English fluency and job expectations. Students must arrange their own housing. For a list of properties, look at the following website: www.wisdells.com/more/employment.cfm Check carefully that the housing is within a few miles of your host company, some of the options listed are in other towns or too far out of town. Please check with your placement director if you have any questions about the housing location. You are responsible for signing your own housing agreement. Be sure to make reservations for a place to stay for at least your first week BEFORE you arrive in the US. Be sure to read any agreements you sign carefully so that you know the length of the rental agreement (some places will want you to sign a 3-month lease). Most places will rent weekly.
